

Confidentiality Agreement

If you want to volunteer at the NSDSS, we would like you to understand confidentiality and what it means to us. If you have any questions please contact our Volunteer Coordinator,

As a volunteer of the Nova Scotia Down Syndrome Society, you will learn confidential information about clients, volunteers or the organization.

This information should be kept private and only be talked about while volunteering for the Nova Scotia Down Syndrome Society.

This information should not be discussed after you choose to stop volunteering with us.

The NSDSS agrees to keep your private information confidential, and we will not talk about your private information unless you say it is ok.

Confidentiality is important to us, and we hope it will be important to you also.

Read the following. If you agree, please sign at the bottom.

I will respect the Nova Scotia Down Syndrome Society's right to privacy and confidentiality. I understand what confidentiality means and how it affects me. I will protect all confidential information from the NSDSS while I am a volunteer and after I am no longer volunteering.
